Quick Guide to Declaring Interests at GMCA Meetings

Please Note: should you have a personal interest that is prejudicial in an item on the agenda, you should leave the meeting for the duration of the discussion and the voting thereon.

This is a summary of the rules around declaring interests at meetings. It does not replace the Member's Code of Conduct, the full description can be found in the GMCA's constitution Part 7A.

Your personal interests must be registered on the GMCA's Annual Register within 28 days of your appointment onto a GMCA committee and any changes to these interests must notified within 28 days. Personal interests that should be on the register include:

1. Bodies to which you have been appointed by the GMCA
2. Your membership of bodies exercising functions of a public nature, including charities, societies, political parties or trade unions.

You are also legally bound to disclose the following information called Disclosable Personal Interests which includes:

1. You, and your partner's business interests (eg employment, trade, profession, contracts, or any company with which you are associated).
2. You and your partner's wider financial interests (eg trust funds, investments, and assets including land and property).
3. Any sponsorship you receive.

Failure to disclose this information is a criminal offence

Step One: Establish whether you have an interest in the business of the agenda

1. If the answer to that question is 'No' then that is the end of the matter.
2. If the answer is 'Yes' or Very Likely' then you must go on to consider if that personal interest can be construed as being a prejudicial interest.

Step Two: Determining if your interest is prejudicial

A personal interest becomes a prejudicial interest:

1. where the wellbeing, or financial position of you, your partner, members of your family, or people with whom you have a close association (people who are more than just an acquaintance) are likely to be affected by the business of the meeting more than it would affect most people in the area.
2. the interest is one which a member of the public with knowledge of the relevant facts would reasonably regard as so significant that it is likely to prejudice your judgement of the public interest.

For a non-prejudicial interest, you must:

1. Notify the governance officer for the meeting as soon as you realise you have an interest.
2. Inform the meeting that you have a personal interest and the nature of the interest.
3. Fill in the declarations of interest form.

To note:

1. You may remain in the room and speak and vote on the matter

2. If your interest relates to a body to which the GMCA has appointed you to, you only have to inform the meeting of that interest if you speak on the matter.

For prejudicial interests, you must:

1. Notify the governance officer for the meeting as soon as you realise you have a prejudicial interest (before or during the meeting).
2. Inform the meeting that you have a prejudicial interest and the nature of the interest.
3. Fill in the declarations of interest form.
4. Leave the meeting while that item of business is discussed.
5. Make sure the interest is recorded on your annual register of interests form if it relates to you or your partner's business or financial affairs. If it is not on the Register update it within 28 days of the interest becoming apparent.

You must not:

Participate in any discussion of the business at the meeting, or if you become aware of your disclosable pecuniary interest during the meeting participate further in any discussion of the business, participate in any vote or further vote taken on the matter at the meeting.

RC/09/22 RECRUITMENT TO THE POST OF GMCA SOLICITOR AND MONITORING OFFICER

Andy Burnham, GM Mayor, introduced a report seeking approval from the Committee on the recruitment programme for filling the position of GMCA Solicitor and Monitoring Officer, following the announcement of intended phased retirement by the current GMCA Solicitor and Monitoring Officer, Liz Treacy, in September/October 2022. The report also sets out the proposed remuneration, and details of the role which has changed considerably since the GMCA was established in 2011.

In introducing the report, Andy Burnham expressed thanks, on behalf of the GMCA, to Liz Treacy, who had carried out the role of GMCA Monitoring Officer at great distinction and had protected the GMCA throughout her time at the GMCA and in particular on bus franchising and the Clean Air Plan. He also confirmed that plans would be arranged to mark Liz's service to the GMCA.

The Chief Executive Officer, GMCA & TfGM, advised that he had agreed the phased retirement request which would enable Liz to continuing support and expertise on key GMCA priorities and support a smooth handover to a new Monitoring Officer. The creation of a senior legal support post for a fixed period of time would facilitate the transition.

The Committee was advised that the salary of the GMCA Monitoring Officer was broadly in line with other City Region Monitoring Officer posts and confirmed that benchmarking information against Monitoring Officer posts across GM would be circulated to the Committee.

RESOLVED/:

1. That the intended phased and flexible retirement arrangements of the current GMCA Solicitor and Monitoring Officer, as set out in the report, be noted.
2. That the Chief Executive Officer, GMCA & TfGM be authorised to progress the recruitment of a new GMCA Solicitor and Monitoring Officer.
3. That the appointment of an appropriate recruitment agency to provide independent support to the process be approved.
4. That the level of the remuneration of the current GMCA Monitoring Officer, set at up to £140,813, be approved and that benchmarking information for Monitoring Officer posts across GM would be circulated to the Committee.
5. That the draft Role Profile for the new GMCA Solicitor and Monitoring Officer be approved for recommendation to the GMCA.
6. That the suggested approach to the recruitment process for that role and the indicative timescales proposed be approved.
7. That a Panel of 4 members of the Committee be constituted to act as the Appointment Panel for the role, comprising, GM Mayor, Andy Burnham, Councillors Martyn Cox, David Molyneux and Brenda Warrington, to progress the recruitment and appointment, noting that the GMCA will approve the final appointment.
8. That the establishment of a senior legal support post, following the recruitment of a new GMCA Solicitor and Monitoring Officer at £95,000 per annum to be applied on a pro-rata basis, be approved
