SECTION A: CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS

Part 1 General Provisions

1. Introduction and Scope

1.1. The Greater Manchester Combined Authority is determined to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by its Members, Co-opted Members and those councillors from Greater Manchester's districts appointed to roles in which they act on behalf of the GMCA. The GMCA has adopted a Code of Conduct for Members in line with its obligations under section 27(2) of the Localism Act 2011.

1.2. This Code mandatorily applies to those acting as Members of the GMCA (including the directly elected Mayor and Substitute Members), voting Co-opted Members of the GMCA's committees or Appointed Members of Joint Committees, and references to "official capacity" are to be construed accordingly.

1.3. Compliance with this Code is a statutory requirement for those identified in paragraph 1.2. To promote good governance the GMCA strongly recommends voluntary compliance with the Code by non-voting Co-opted Members of the GMCA's committees and by elected members from Greater Manchester's ten districts when they otherwise act for or represent the GMCA. Where a member is only subject to the Code through voluntary compliance (as described in this paragraph) they will not in law be subject to the statutory obligations relating to member conduct under Chapter 7, Part 1 of the Localism Act 2011 nor can the conduct of such a member, insofar as it concerns that member's GMCA role, amount to any of the criminal offences referred to in this Code. However, the conduct of a member who has agreed to voluntarily be subject to the Code may be considered under the GMCA's arrangements for determining whether a member has breached the Code.

1.4. In this Code – 'meeting' means any meeting of:

- the GMCA; or

- any of the GMCA's Committees or Sub-Committees, Joint Committees or Joint Sub-Committees.

For the purposes of this Code "Committee" includes any Fire Committee that may be established by the Mayor.

This Code does not have effect in relation to a member's conduct other than where it is in that member's official capacity.

This Code will be reviewed every two years by the GMCA's Standards Committee or earlier if required by a change in legislation.

2. General Principles

- 2.1. The Code and the associated guidance are based on the following general principles.
- 2.2. Members must behave according to the highest standards of personal conduct in everything they do when acting as a Member or voting Co-opted Member (or in the case of those voluntarily subject to compliance with the Code in accordance with paragraph 1.3 above, where they are otherwise acting on behalf of the GMCA). They must observe the following principles of conduct, some of which are set out in law. The seven principles of Standards in Public Life known as the Nolan Principles underpin the provisions of the GMCA's Code of Conduct for Members. They are set out in paragraphs 2.3 to 2.9 below.
- 2.3. Selflessness: holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.
- 2.4. Integrity: holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in the work. They should not act or take decisions on order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must disclose and resolve any interests and relationships.
- 2.5. Objectivity: Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.
- 2.6. Accountability: Holders of public office are accountable for their decisions and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to ensure this.
- 2.7. Openness: Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for doing so.
- 2.8. Honesty: Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.

2.9. Leadership: Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs. Where those covered by this Code act as a representative of the GMCA:

- a) on another relevant authority, they must, when acting for that other authority, comply with that other authority's code of conduct; or
- b) on any other body, they must comply with this Code, unless it conflicts with any other lawful obligations to which that other body may be subject.

2.10. It is an individual's responsibility to comply with this Code. Failure to do so may result in a sanction being applied by the GMCA. A failure by a Member coming within the scope of paragraph 1.2 above to declare a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest may result in a criminal conviction and an unlimited fine and/or disqualification from office for a period of up to 5 years.
